My Dear Hildegard;

Your letter recived, and was glad to hear from you, but it sems to me you feeling not anny to good, it may be that the cement floor has a loot to du that is bad I hope that you may get your Class in a differnd room. I am O.K. and the rest hire been all in good health.

I have some sad news from Germany I send the 9. of Jan. a letter to Aunt Emma the letter came back ,--On the back of the letter it was righthen verstorben it means She is Dead. I recived the letter the 14. Feb. the 20 of Feb. I rowth to Anna Steguweit and asking her to give some information then I think She will know some of the Dead of Emma. Jes the strain and worry about Herbert has been to much for her, it will take some time befor I will from Anna? I wish we could have more correspondet since we had a stardet Jes it take so long to get a return. Now She is resting and worry and sorrow is over, I hope the Lord has taking her home, The pictures not finnischt jet, will let you know when they will be made will close with loots of Love Father

P.S Herbert name is

Herbert Sternberg I du not think that the name ever was changed. If he is a live we may hear from him true Anna Steguweit.----
