The Kletke's Have Arrived

We've moved! What an exciting adventure the last few months have been. Only a few short weeks ago we were living in St. Louis, Missouri and now we're in Pembroke, Ontario Canada. Thanks to our family, friends in St. Louis, and our friends in Union, Missouri we were able to load our 26 foot Penske moving van on Saturday, July 28. Dan's parents, Dale and Virginia, Dietrich, Dustin, Dan, and I spent two long days on the road. The first day we drove to my mom's house in Michigan where we had a wonderful visit and got some much needed rest. The second day we crossed the border into Canada. Surprisingly, it went very well. We were able to get the appropriate paperwork and cross the border in only an hour and a half. They didn't even want to look in our moving van! All in all, it went very smoothly. After another long day on the road we pulled into Pembroke.

Pembroke is a small community (approx. 15,000) of very nice people. We have been warmly welcomed. Well, that's an understatement! Everyone we have met has been extremely generous and welcoming. The house we are living in has two stories with three bedrooms and an office. We love it! It has a garage and a small back yard. Dietrich is able to play outside while I hang laundry on the clothes line. This is very new for us and it's great! We live across the parking lot from our new congregation, St. John's Lutheran Church. So far, that is working out just fine. With the price of gas lately, we're glad not to have to fill up very often. We also enjoy having Dan come home for lunch.

Please take a look at some of our new pictures at www.kletke.com and as always we would love to have visitors if you ever find your way up to Ontario.

God's Blessings,
The Kletkes

In Ottawa, about 90 miles away, they have a tomb of the Unknown Soldier and we were able to watch the changing of the guard. We were amazed that the soldiers actually have redcoats. Having lived in Boston three years ago, we had to smile at each other as both of us were thinking the same thing, "The Redcoats are coming..."

Thank you to all of our friends at St. Paul in Union, MO, for the lovely Mexican meal and going away presents.
We will miss all of you!
